PEACE

College

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

F

oreword

Christian ideals . . . clan-like fellowship that gives a sense of love and security . . . capable and understanding faculty . . . diligent and perceptive student leaders . . . students with a desire to acquire knowledge and to attain maturity . . . all are woven into the Peace tartan that is as blythe as a highland fling, as enduring as the fighting Scots, as warm and friendly as a Scottish burr.

In a highland setting we present to you the 1960 LORRS.

"Here's to the friends we can trust when storms of adversity blow."

DUNLOP

DEDICATION

"In richest ore the brightest jewel set."

BURNS

Twinkling eyes . . . gentle smile . . . expressive fingertips . . . spontaneous laughter . . . demure manner . . . a soft-voiced, "Daughter" . . . genuineness. Through the eyes of Mrs. Frances Darden most of us have seen Peace. She taught us to love it and its ideals, and from her devotion to Peace we came to know, love, and respect her. The 1960 Lotus is dedicated to Mrs. Darden, because, in guiding our lives, she gave us an insight into the true meaning of life.

TRIBUTE

*"The rank is but the guinea stamp,
The man's the gold for all that."*

BURNS

Service above self . . . Christian humility . . . radiating love . . . hands reminiscent of Dürer's Praying Hands . . . a quiet voice revealing spiritual depth . . . an overwhelming desire to help with every problem. These qualities make the Reverend Mr. Richard Morgan an inspiration to all Peace girls. Because his open heart made it easy for us to open our hearts to him, we pay tribute to Mr. Morgan in the 1960 Lotus.

The COLLEGE

ADMINIS

DR. WILLIAM C. PRESSLY
President

"And ne'er made another thy peer."
BURNS

Wise . . . sincere . . . understanding . . . Dr. William C. Pressly, beloved president of Peace College, works always for the best interest of each student, offering words of encouragement and counsel, and proving himself an ever-helpful friend.

MISS JUDITH NASH
Social Dean

"For nature made her what she is and never made another."

BURNS

Warm . . . devoted . . . perceptive . . . In helping students solve their personal problems, and in encouraging them to develop a mature attitude toward life, Miss Judith Nash has been an inspiration to all girls at Peace.

TRATION

MR. DAVID WARNER

Assistant to the President

"My loved, my honored, much respected friend."

SCOTT

Versatile . . . friendly . . . discerning . . . Mr. Warner, as Assistant to the President, leads a busy life. Representing Peace at "High School Days," he encourages many girls to come to Peace. His versatility and personality endear him to both the students and the faculty.

MISS FRANCES SUTER

Registrar and Academic Dean

"The generous purpose nobly dear."

BURNS

Smiling . . . diligent . . . helpful . . . A quiet figure sits amid the hustle and bustle in "Grand Central Station," busily trying to get to the bottom of the mound of paper work stacked on her desk. Miss Frances Suter, Academic Dean, wins hearts by her willingness to stop whatever she is doing and help each student.

O, Dinna Ye Mind?

It was in and about the autumn time
When the green leaves were a-falling,
"A college lass I am at last,
And knowledge is a-calling."

"Oh, look at all the pretty girls,
And books and rooms and places."
'Twas so much fun the first few weeks—
A-putting names with faces.

"Oh, will ye be Rho, or will ye be Sig,
Or will ye be a Pi?"
'Twere the hardest votes 'twere ever cast
And ended in a tie.

Church bells and class bells ringing,
Plus the bell that rang on our hall.
"Mary, when is the bell for our dinner?
That's the one we love best of all."

They were no sooner at supper sett,
Than after said the grace,
"Come eat with us, Dr. Pressly,
The seat of Honor's your place."

There were lassies who lived in a bower
On the bonnie fourth floor of Main,
"I wish ye would cut out that chatter,
Cause my brain's undergoing a strain."

A-playing cards in the "rec" room,
And a-waiting for the mail,
"Mom said she'd send me my package,
Be it rain or snow or hail."

Bright trees and holly were all around,
Some carols, a party, a gift,
Oh, that wonderful holiday spirit
Brought to our hearts a lift.

"Oh, where hae ye been, Peace lassies,
An' what did ye go to see?"
"Why, concerts and ballets and paintings
And cultural plays on TV."

"When takin' the high or the low road,
Should I reach class afore ye,
I'll tell teacher dear that soon ye'll be here;
For not cuttin' class she'll adore ye."

"Oh, it's time to go to Chapel,"
Our speaker saw many a face,
"Lead On, O King Eternal,"
We sang as we filed out in place.

It was on or about St. Patrick's Day
That smiles were everywhere seen,
"Oh, have ye got your dates arranged
For the Week-end of the Green?"

Every lassie had her laddie,
And some had two or three,
"Blue Devil or Deacon, Tar Heel or Wolf,
Oh, which one now will he be?"

"Oh, what hae ye got there, lassie?
Oh, what hae ye got fram him?
Is it pin, or a charm, or flowers,
Or is it that ye got a gem?"

Saddled and bridled and booted rade she
Over the hills pell-mell,
"Horseback riding is just not for me,
Especially since I fell."

Parlors an' porches an' classrooms—
How well we did know them all!
"Let's go down to the sundeck an' sunbathe;
There's nobody left on our hall."

As soon as the spring was upon us,
Excitement was seen everywhere,
"Oh, look at the May Pole and dancers!
Our May Queen and Court are so fair."

There were girls around the fountain,
All arrayed with daisy chain,
"Oh, Seniors at Peace College
We never shall be again."

Oh, cheery, cheery was his cheek,
And silver was his hair,
"After giving you diplomas,
All knowledge I hope you'll share."

A long white dress and roses:
'Midst many a smile an' tear,
"Peace, ye'll be loved and treasured,
For many a memory's here."

ACTIVITIES

The Student Council

Standing: Faye Creech, Marilyn Maki, Frances Ledford, Miss Frances Suter, Miss Judith Nash, Mrs. Henry Stafford, Beeky Grady, Garwood Monk, Kay Melson, Susan Crow. Seated: Harriet Calhoun, Billie Bowling, Sara Jo Allen, Virginia Anderson, Marie Tribby, Betsy Byerly, Bennie Carlan, Betty Ann Graham, Liz Dounnelly, Elizabeth Fletcher.

The Student Council is the executive body of the Student Government Association. It promotes understanding and co-operation between faculty and students, and encourages full student participation in the various phases of self-government. The president of the Association is the presiding officer of the Student Council as well as of the Student Assembly.

BETSY BYERLY

P. S. C. A.

BECKY GRADY

To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ, to lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church, to promote their growth in Christian faith and character, to train them in Christian leadership and service, to influence them to devote themselves in united effort with Christians throughout the world toward making the will of God effective in society are the goals of the Peace Student Christian Association.

The P.S.C.A. accomplishes these purposes through the "big sister-little sister" program, but discussions, parlor prayers, hall prayers, Thanksgiving baskets, Religious Emphasis Week, Week of Sharing, and vesper services.

Presidents' Council

MARIE TRIBBY

Presidents' Council is the branch of the Student Government Association which co-ordinates student activities. Among these are cultural and educational programs and all student-sponsored functions. Presidents' Council is composed of the presiding officers of all student groups and the social chairman of the Student Government Association.

Honor Court

The highest judiciary body of Peace College is the Honor Court, which upholds and promotes the Honor Code in all phases of life at Peace. This Court strives to create within each student an awareness of high moral and social standards.

SARA JO ALLEN

Virginia Anderson, Elizabeth Ann Jones, Betsy Byerly, Faye Creech, Becky Grady, Bennie Carlan.

PHI . . . WISDOM
THETA . . . ASPIRATION
KAPPA . . . PURITY

Phi Theta Kappa, National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, was organized to foster a spirit of devotion to study and scholarly ideals, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among students. The members are chosen because of their exceptional leadership qualities and scholastic ability.

ALPHA . . . ACCURACY
PI . . . DEPENDABILITY
EPSILON . . . EFFICIENCY

The objective of Alpha Pi Epsilon, National Honorary Secretarial Society, is to professionalize the status of the college-trained secretary. Membership is restricted to students of superior scholarship, personality, and character.

ELIZABETH SNEEDEN

FRANCES McCASKILL
Editor-in-Chief

"Oh ye'll tak' the high road an' I'll tak' the low road," but all roads lead to the Publications Room where the Lotus editorial staff spends many hours planning layouts and writing and rewriting copy, while the business staff members are busy selling advertisements. The goal of our staff has been to compile and produce a yearbook which will record for you many of the happy experiences of your years spent at Peace.

THE LOTUS

The 1960 Peace Times

Standing: Bonnie Carlan, Carol Ross, Linda Qullen, Pam Voliva, Sue Spellman, Frances McCaskill, Rhoda Blanton, Louise Blackwelder, Bobbie Harrell, Frankie Edwards, Nancy Hughes. Seated: Miss Catherine Shaffer, Claudia Harmon, Nancy Allison, Margaret Leith.

"A nose for news," ability to meet a deadline, and pride in copy are requirements that lead to the coveted by-line and journalism awards. Crowded staff meetings can turn into parties, an assignment can result in a dinner meeting, but the Peace Times staff is always striving for the concise, forceful style that is the hallmark of the "fourth estate."

NANCY ALLISON
Peace Times Editor

Spanish Club

MARGARET LEITH

Whether through performing skits, breaking a pinata, visiting the Art Museum, or listening to illustrated lectures, Spanish Club members learn about the various Spanish-speaking countries of the world and practice hearing and speaking the Spanish language.

SARAH McDUFFIE

"Give me a spark o' Nature's fire," add a pen and pad and you have a Papyrus Club member. By sharing their ideas and experiences with other members and by giving objective criticism, members develop creative abilities and come a step closer to their goal of writing material of a quality that merits publishing.

Papyrus Club

Standing: Mona Cozart, Mary Ann Wilson, Sarah McDuffie, Nancy Hughes. Seated: Bennie Carlan, Carol Ross.

"Mother Goose," under the direction of the Athletic Council, entertained the May Court, Peace Students, and visitors on May Day. The goals of the Council are to promote good sportsmanship among students, and to provide wholesome recreation for Peace students through the May Day activities and the Intra-mural program.

BILLIE BOWLING

Athletic Council

I. R. C.

"It's coming yet, for a' that,
That man to man, the world o'er,
Shall brothers be for a' that."

The International Relations Club opens a door for students to become well-informed and useful citizens of the world. Guests from many countries speak at monthly meetings. Membership is limited to twenty-five members, girls who have been invited to join because of their special interest in world affairs.

VIRGINIA ANDERSON

Standing: Gigi Fisher, Bobbie Harrell, Susan Crow, Virginia Anderson, Becky Winston. Seated: Mary Ann Wilson, Mrs. Mildred Thigpen, Lucy Finch.

Daughters and Granddaughters Club

Did you mither com' to Peace fair maid, did you mither com' to Peace? The "second generations" have as their purpose the preservation of Peace customs and traditions.

This year, with the aid of their advisor, Mrs. Mildred Thigpen, the Daughters and Granddaughters made Christmas decorations, which they arranged throughout the buildings.

MARY ANN WILSON

Standing: Jane Terrell, Carolyn Elliott, Sallie Simpson, Camille Melvin, Barbara Gilliam, Rhoda Blanton, Mary Lewis, Jolly Campbell, Nina Coates, Frances McCaskill, Eloise Clark, Karen Koth, Claudia Hurst, Martha Bland, Ellie Ann Purvis, Cindy Poole, Betty Mathews, Betty Eastwood.
Seated: Margaret Nadal, Norma Carole Summerlin, Merrie Helyn Wallace, Judy Vance, Honey McIntyre, Judy Patterson.

Peace Dramateers

JUDY VANCE

Stage struck? No, not all of the members. Most of the Dramateers are seeking the extra confidence and poise that experience in dramatics will give.

Focused in the spotlight is the purpose of the club: To stimulate and to encourage interest in drama and theatre activities.

Standing: Judy Butler, Sylvia McDonald, Rhoda Blanton, Margaret Saunders, Frances McCaskill, Margaret Leith, Linnea Blossci, Miss Mabel Pugh. Seated: Frankie Daino, Linda Quillen, Virginia Anderson, Harriet Dodd, Margie Johnstone, Nina Coates.

Art Club

MARGARET ELLEN BELL SAUNDERS

Not all of the members are potential Rembrandts or Raphaels, but they all have an interest in art. Through lectures, exhibits, and films, the members hope to add knowledge to their interest and to increase their appreciation of and sensitivity to the beautiful things around them.

The main project of the Club is to raise funds for the Art Club Scholarship, which is given to a deserving and talented student.

"She's stately like yon youthful ash,
That grows the cowslip braes between."

BURNS

Burns' words might well describe the Home Economics Club members who model fashions in their style show at the end of each year. The Club presents programs which help girls to become well-groomed, poised, and informed in principles of etiquette and which aid them in becoming proficient homemakers.

RITA CASTLEBERRY

Home Economics Club

Standing: Petty McQueen, Marilyn Pearce, Ginny Nelson, Sylvia McDonald, Nina Coates, Betty Smith, Barbara Troutman, Katherine Slaughter, Frances McCaskill, Norma Carole Summerlin, Judy Dellinger, Beverly Howe, Mary Byrum, Linnea Blosser, Sylvia Barrett, Priscilla Hoy, Judy Butler.
Seated: Claudette Brown, Nancy Allison, Lynda Reece, Kateva Hanrahan, Jackie Kincheloe, Linda Strickland, Rita Castleberry, Ann Dew, Virginia McKinney.

Creech, Cheves, Mathews, Strickland.

Non-Resident Officers

FAYE CREECH

The Non-Resident officers attempt to make each day student feel as truly a part of Peace as any resident student. The president of the Non-Residents is a member of the Student Council.

Le Circle Francais

The newest Club on the campus is Le Circle Francais. Organized in October of 1959, it has monthly meetings that stimulate an interest in the French language and culture.

SARA JO ALLEN

"A bonnie lassie" . . . faithful in little things . . . sincere . . . loyal . . . possessing an understanding heart . . . Sara Jo's deep interest in each student has manifested itself as she has executed her duties as president of the Honor Court.

MARTHA CARLAN

"Blythe, blythe and merry was she" . . . loyal . . . generous . . . pixy-ish . . . friendly . . . active . . . intellectual . . . "Bennie" Carlan's warm personality and sparkling wit have made her loved by all who know her. Also "tops" academically, "Bennie" is truly an outstanding senior.

Peace College — 1960

Outstanding Seniors

BETSY BYERLY

"The smile of love . . . the friendly tear . . . the sympathetic glow" . . . Outstanding president of the Student Government Association . . . Ranking high scholastically, spiritually, and socially, Betsy Byerly is one of the most active and most versatile seniors at Peace College.

MARY ANN WILSON

"Her smile was like a summer morn"
. . . poised . . . creative . . . sincerely desiring to help others . . . Serving as vice-president of the P.S.C.A. and president of the Daughters and Granddaughters, and maintaining a high scholastic average, Mary Ann Wilson merits the title of outstanding senior.

FAYE CREECH

"She's modest as ony and blythe as she's bonnie" . . . capable . . . pretty . . . petite . . . intellectual . . . Serving as president of the Non-Residents gives Faye Creech a great deal of prestige but takes nothing away from the sweetness that is Faye.

VIRGINIA ANDERSON

"But it's not her air, her form, her face, 't is the mind that shines in ev'ry grace" . . . talented . . . perceptive . . . An alert mind and a deep appreciation of world happenings make Virginia Anderson outstanding as president of the I.R.C.

Peace College — 1960

Outstanding Seniors

REBECCA GRADY

"Her comely face sae fu' o' grace" . . . dainty . . . loyal . . . sincere . . . Becky is a leader but an equally capable follower. Largely through her determination and hard work, the P.S.C.A., of which she is president, has had a successful year.

FRANCES McCASKILL

"But to see her is to love her" . . . vivacious . . . sparkling . . . versatile . . . diligent editor of the 1960 LORRIS . . . Frances McCaskill radiates the joy of living, because she knows how to live life to the fullest and to inspire confidence in all with whom she comes in contact.
